Death of Rev. John Stonestreet VanMeter.

The sad news of the death of Rev. John Stonestreet VanMeter was received with sorrow by the members of the First Presbyterian church in this city Tuesday afternoon. He had lately accepted a call to this church and upon his short visits here had won many friends among all of our people. His death occurred in New York City where he had been for several months hoping to recuperate his health before taking up his active duties as pastor in this city. His wife and son, Mr. Yerkes VanMeter, were at the bedside when death came. The body arrived at Lexington yesterday afternoon and the funeral services will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Lexington, this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Muller, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Kirkwood, officiating. Mr. VanMeter's death resulted from heart trouble after a prolonged illness, which originated while he was on a visit to Paris last summer and while here he was taken ill of inflammatory rheumatism and was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital where he remained a month. While at the hospital he developed heart trouble, which resulted in his death.

John Stonestreet VanMeter was born in Fayette county in September of 1846. He was the son of Solomon VanMeter and Elizabeth Stonestreet VanMeter. At the early age of sixteen years he entered the Confederate army, serving through the war as a member of Company E, Eighth Kentucky Cavalry.

After the close of the war he entered Washington and Lee University and was graduated from that institution. He then read law and entered upon the practice of his profession at Lexington. He married Miss Lizzie Yerkes, a daughter of the Rev. Dr. Stephen Yerkes, of Danville, Ky., who with their only son John Yerkes VanMeter, survives him. As a lawyer he rose in his profession and was elected attorney of Fayette county.

While holding this office, he decided to study for the ministry of the Presbyterian church, and giving up his office and practice, he attended the Theological Seminary at Danville, and was later graduated from the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J.

Mr. VanMeter's first charge was at Cynthiana, Ky., where he remained three years. From there he went to Hot Springs, Ark., where he was pastor seven years. His next charge was at Richmond and Clinton, Missouri, where he was several years. He spent one year in Los Angeles, California, where he went on account of his wife's health.

During the past two years he had been living in New York, where his son is attending the Bellview College of Medicine.

Mr. VanMeter leaves a sister, Mrs. W. D. Nicholas, of 440 West Fourth street, Lexington, and three half-brothers, the Messrs. Solomon, Ike and Prewitt VanMeter, and a half-sister, Mrs. Lucy H. Kerr, of Fulton, Missouri.

Mr. VanMeter was a Knight Templar, and the funeral will be held with Masonic honors.

The Legislature.

The State Senate by a vote of 19 to 9 passed the bill appropriating $20,000 for a statue of the late Gov. Goebel to be placed in the new State House. The House by a vote of 69 to 19 passed a bill repealing the law appropriating $15,000 annually for a State fair. The House Bill proposing to regulate the tobacco business of the State was defeated in the House. Several minor bills were passed by the House at its night session.

Gov. Beckham appeared before the State Printing Investigation Committee at Frankfort, Tuesday night, and was questioned at length in regard to the contracts for State printing. At the close of the examination Gov. Beckham undertook to make an additional statement, but was referred by Senator Carroll to another committee.

The bills assigning the county of Beckham to its proper judicial district and increasing the pay of the Appellate Court stenographers to $100 a month were signed by Gov. Beckham, Tuesday. The bills relating to the sale of stocks of goods in bulk and increasing the annual allowance for clerk hire in the State Insurance Department were allowed to become laws without the Governor's approval.

The discussion over the Campbell amendment to the school book law was very bitter between Senators Campbell and Cantrill, and consumed most of Wednesday's session of the State Senate. The body refused to take the bill from the orders of the day, thus practically killing it. The House passed the bills appropriating $40,000 for completing the cellhouse at the Eddyville penitentiary and appropriating $25,000 for improvements at the Frankfort penitentiary. A number of bills of minor importance were passed. The House decided to hold no more night sessions.

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First. The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its patrons which is now being offered by that most popular railroad, the "Henderson Route," which road has been rightly termed the "Kentucky's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has just been announced from the general office of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night trains between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have just been received from the shops and are a revelation in the car builder's art.

The cars are strictly up-to-date, first-class "palaces of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises which are promised the public for the World's Fair travel by the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are solidly vestibuled and are furnished with six-foot reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition to smoking and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in leather. They are also fitted up with triple tracks, which feature will do away with the jerk, jar and strain incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach, and assures a smooth, comfortable ride. This should prove more than a popular feature in train service to the traveling public, and you can only suggest that in traveling you "get the Henderson Route's" chair.

A LYNCHING IN OHIO.

Slayer of a Policeman Put to Death by a Mob.

Springfield's Negro Quarters Fired and Twenty Houses Destroyed—Ten Companies of Militia Guard the City.

Springfield, O., March 8.—Richard Dixon, a desperate Negro, was taken from the county jail Monday night by an infuriated mob and shot to death in the jail yard, and a few moments later the body was taken to the corner of Main street and Fountain avenue, where the mob spent a half hour riddling the body with bullets from several hundred revolvers.

Dixon shot Policeman Collis Sunday morning in the former's room in the Jones hotel, and Collis died at noon Monday. Collis had served for 12 years on the force and was regarded as one of the most reliable and efficient men in the police department. He had gone to Dixon's room on the Negro's request. Dixon said his mistress had his clothes in her possession. Collis accompanied Dixon to the room and in a short time the men and woman engaged in a quarrel which resulted in Dixon shooting the woman, who is variously known as Anna or Mamie Corbin, in the left breast just over the heart. She fell unconscious at the first shot and Collis jumped toward the Negro to prevent his escape from the room. Dixon then fired four balls into Collis, the last of which penetrated his abdomen.

Dixon immediately went to police headquarters and gave himself up. He was taken to jail and Collis and the wounded Negro were taken to the hospital.

At 7:30 o'clock Monday evening a mob of boys gathered in front of the jail. This group was augmented by a few men and by 8 o'clock 300 men had congregated about the jail yard and steps. At one time the iron bar at the east entrance was removed and the door partly opened. The policemen on the inside promptly opened the door and pulled the two nearest men inside. This ended all active moves to break the door until nearly 11 o'clock.

Upon the request of Mayor Bowler, Maj. T. J. Kirkpatrick, of the Third O. V. I., had Companies B and E in readiness to aid in defending the jail. Before either company was ready, however, an entrance into the jail had been forced.

When Dixon had been secured it required only a few minutes to push back the small cordon of policemen, who made their last stand at the east entrance in an ineffectual attempt to keep Dixon inside. The Negro's face was livid and when he appeared at the top of the main steps he would have fallen from sheer terror had he not been suspended in the grasp of a dozen men. The police again rallied to his aid and when the mob saw this the leaders hurriedly decided to kill their victim before the arrival of the militia.

There have been 11 murders in Clark county in the last two years and in no instance has there been a conviction for first degree murder. Several of these murders have been of the cold-blooded type and exasperating and this fact, more than any other, is responsible for the first lynching in the history of the county. There has never yet been a case of capital punishment from this, Clark county.

Springfield, O., March 9.—Threats throughout the day and Tuesday evening to burn the levee, the Negro district of the city, confirmed Mayor C. J. Bowler in his belief that more trouble was brewing Tuesday night and he has asked Gov. Herrick for troops.

During the afternoon threats were heard that the levee would be burned. At 11:20 the threat of the mob, frequently made through the day and evening, was finally made good and a volume of flame was seen to shoot up from the rear of a place occupied by "Les" Thomas, a saloonkeeper.

Preceding the firing of the building the mob, at a distance of a hundred feet, shot at the front of the building for a half hour, but it is not known whether any of the occupants had remained in the building, and if they did whether any fatalities resulted from the shooting.

The fire in East Washington street has burned out exactly the district the mob said should go.

At 2:30 Wednesday morning the fire had burned itself out and both mob and spectators have for the most part dispersed. Quiet prevails throughout the city and the mob is good natured and orderly, evidently well satisfied with its night's work. It is hardly probable that an attempt will be made by the whites to burn the West Washington street resorts out as this section is closely guarded by Dayton and Miamisburg troops. Probably 20 small buildings were destroyed, entailing a loss of not to exceed $30,000.

Springfield, O., March 10.—The situation early Wednesday evening was considered by the authorities to be more threatening than at any time

Famous Sculptor Expires.
Albany, N. Y., March 10.—Erastus Dow Palmer, famous as one of the American pioneers in sculpture, died Wednesday night at his home in this city in his 87th year. Mr. Palmer was the author of many notable works of sculpture.

President Benjamin Andrews Ill.
Chicago, March 10.—Dr. Benjamin Andrews, president of the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln, is at the Chicago Baptist hospital suffering from the grip. Dr. Andrews arrived in Chicago en route to New York.

since the beginning of the present race troubles. While Gov. Herrick has not proclaimed a state of martial law, such a condition practically exists in the downtown districts and the burned portions of town, formerly occupied by the Negro resorts. Ten companies of Ohio national guard are on picket duty.

The saloons without exception have been closed all afternoon and many other lines of business have practically ceased. It is estimated that fully 25,000 people thronged the streets Wednesday, visiting the county jail, the telegraph pole at Main street and Fountain avenue, where the Negro Dixon was strung up, and the burned out district of the levee.

As the result of repeated requests from influential citizens, Mayor Bowler has finally consented not only to close the remaining Negro saloons, hotels and lodging houses which are under the ban of the mob, but has ordered the proprietors in every instance to move out all the intoxicating drinks, and in some instances even the fixtures, including gambling apparatus.

The mob has at no time shown any disposition to burn property other than that on the levee.

At 11 p. m. the militia had dispersed the crowds in the central part of the city but it was feared they would form elsewhere for later movements. While there are 15,000 Negroes in this city, none were seen anywhere Wednesday night. Notwithstanding reports about shipping the body of Dixon, the Negro, to Kentucky, his remains were privately interred here Wednesday evening in Ferncliff cemetery. The body was taken to the cemetery in a covered wagon and none knew of the incident except relatives and cemetery officials.

It is thought that hundreds of Negroes are out in the woods around the city, as they can not be found within the limits. No women or children are forced to remain out over night, as the crowds threaten only males. There are two or three among what are called "bad" Negroes that are said to be wanted by the crowds and the Negroes fear others are wanted.

Telegrams are being received by Negroes from their fellows in other states offering help. The pastor of a colored church in Kansas City Wednesday wired to a pastor here:

"If you want any aid from Kansas, call on us. We are prepared to come to your rescue."

The colored people here now are afraid to be seen getting telegrams or mail. When the west end of the levee was cleaned out Wednesday no white men would work with moving vans and no white men would accept the goods in storage. The work had to be done by colored men under guard of the militia and most of the goods from the dismantled saloons are piled up in the open yards of colored people.

The only outbreak up to Wednesday night occurred at 11 o'clock in short Winter street, a thoroughfare only two squares in length and inhabited by both blacks and whites. A half dozen resorts mostly owned by whites are located there and at 11 o'clock five shots, aimed at a colored man, were the occasion of three companies of militia being dispatched to the scene of the disturbance.

By the time the militiamen arrived the police had restored order and the colored occupants of several houses were ordered indoors. One company was retained in Winter street until morning. Shooting was also heard in the vicinity of Miami alley, a Negro district, but the police were unable to ascertain by whom the shots were fired. A saloon at Spring and North streets was looted Wednesday night. Considerable quantities of whisky, beer and tobacco were secured, and as the place had been shut up for many hours previous, it is not known whether the work was done by a mob or not.

Earlier in the night crowds varying from 100 to 600 jeered and hooted the soldiers and it frequently became necessary for the troops to push the rioters back at the point of the bayonet. A special grand jury will sit next Monday morning to investigate the work of the mob and ascertain if possible the leaders of Monday night's mob, which killed Richard Dixon, and also the leaders of the rioters Tuesday night who burned the Negro resorts in East Washington street. Judge Mower and Prosecuting Attorney McGrew declare they will not let up until they have secured some tangible evidence upon which to base indictments. It is generally regarded as a most difficult task, as the mob at no time appeared to have any one or group of leaders.

Col. Mead, of Dayton, is holding the city under strong military rule. He will be superseded by Gen. McMakin, of Toledo, when there will be 17 companies of the militia here. At every point where the slightest danger was anticipated strong detachments have been placed and an ample reserve is maintained at both armories. Col. Mead is in almost constant communication with Adj. Gen. Critchfield at Columbus.

Complaints have already reached here from Xenia and Urbana that refugees from this city have gone to those places, but it is not thought they have gone in sufficient numbers to create any disturbance.

Mme. Patti Cancels All Engagements.
Memphis, Tenn., March 10.—Mme. Patti arrived in Memphis late Wednesday night from Hot Springs and left immediately in two special cars en route to New York. She ordered all future bookings cancelled and will sail for Europe.

Representative Croft Seriously Ill.
Washington, March 10.—Representative George W. Croft, of the Second congressional district of South Carolina, is critically ill at his home here and hope of his recovery has been abandoned.

Going to Manchuria.
Paris, March 10.—A St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that it is affirmed that the Grand Duchess Olga Alexandrovna, sister of the czar, is going out to Manchuria to act as superintendent of the Red Cross work.

ENGAGEMENT ON LAND

Collision Between Japs and Russians in Korea.

The Battle Occurred Near Hai Ju, 54 Miles West of Chemulpo and Resulted in the Defeat of the Czar's Troops.

London, March 10.—A dispatch to the Times from Wei-Hai-Wei, dated March 9, says: "It is reported on good authority that a collision between Japanese and Russian troops has occurred near Hai Ju, Korea (54 miles northwest of Chemulpo), which resulted in the defeat of the Russians."

St. Petersburg, March 8.—Viceroy Alexieff has telegraphed the czar from Mukden, under Monday's date, as follows:

"Supplementing my telegram of March 6, I most humbly report that at 1:25 p. m. five out of seven of the enemy's ships opened fire on Forts Suvaroff and Linevitch, on the town, on the roadstead and along the valley of the River Oyassienlye.

A later message from the viceroy says: "The commandant at Vladivostok reports that yesterday's bombardment resulted in no serious damage to the port. The fortress did not return the enemy's fire."

"To-day at midday the enemy again entered Ussuri bay and approached the point from which they bombarded the harbor on March 6. They left again, making for the open sea."

London, March 8.—Up to a late hour Monday evening the Japanese legation here had received no official information regarding the bombardment of Vladivostok. It is believed at the legation, however, that the Japanese are now between the Russian cruiser squadron and Vladivostok, and there is reason to believe that the Russian squadron is in the vicinity of Possiet bay.

Russian official dispatches do not mention this squadron, and this fact lends color to the belief that the Japanese warships have shut it out of Vladivostok. It is pointed out at the legation that if this is true the Russian vessels are in a critical position since they must run the gauntlet of the Japanese squadron off Vladivostok or the Japanese squadron off Port Arthur before reaching a Russian port.

London, March 9.—The far eastern news published here continues to be most meager. The dispatch of Viceroy Alexieff adds practically nothing to the accounts of the Vladivostok bombardment contained in the dispatches of Monday.

There is no further mention of the rumor that the Russian Vladivostok squadron has been engaged.

The whereabouts of the Vladivostok squadron is still unknown and would appear to be quite unlikely that a naval battle has occurred.

In Shanghai it is believed that the Japanese will attempt the seizure of New Chwang as soon as the ice clears.

A correspondent of the Daily Express at Shanghai asserts that the Russians are throwing up a continuous line of earthworks from Kai Ping to Liao Yang.

It is also reported that news has reached Osaka, Japan, of an engagement between Japanese and Russians at a point 100 miles from Vladivostok in which the Russians fled.

A correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Tokio says that according to reports from Port Arthur the Russian battleship Retvizan and the cruiser Askold have been refloated.

SENATOR TILLMAN ILL.

Examination Disclosed That An Abscess Has Formed on Left Tonsil.

Washington, March 10.—Senator Tillman is confined to his room suffering from throat trouble. A thorough examination was made of the senator's throat Wednesday and disclosed the fact that an abscess had formed on the left tonsil. It is said to be a very small one and the physicians believe it can be relieved without great difficulty. An operation will be performed Thursday. After that several days of complete rest will be necessary by which time the physicians hope the throat again will be in its normal condition. The statement was made at the senator's house Wednesday night that his condition is not dangerous and that he has only a very slight fever.

Cleveland to Be a Mason.

New York, March 10.—Word has come from Trenton, N. J., that former President Cleveland is to become a mason. Grand Master J. Holt Appgar has arranged to convene the grand lodge of masons of New Jersey in Princeton, and Mr. Cleveland will receive three degrees at one time.

Discharged From the National Guard.
Omaha, Neb., March 10.—A special from Lincoln, Neb., Wednesday says that an order has been issued by Adj. Gen. Culver, discharging Brig. Gen. P. H. Barry from the Nebraska national guard and disbanding his staff.

Rumors of Mediation.

London, March 10.—Rumors of mediation in the far east between Russia and Japan under The Hague convention continue to circulate on the continent, but evidently the British government has no idea that mediation is possible at this time.

No Irregularities Discovered.
Washington, March 10.—The investigation of the affairs of the division of correspondence of the post office department has been concluded and it is understood that nothing irregular has been found there by the inspectors.

DEATH OF CHARLES LANGHAM.

He is the Father of Baroness Speck Von Sternburg.

Washington, March 10.—The Baroness Speck von Sternburg, the German ambassador, received a brief dispatch Wednesday from her uncle, Arthur Langham, of Louisville, announcing the sudden death of her father, Charles Langham, Wednesday, on his estate in Southern California.

The German ambassador at once cabled the news to Mrs. Langham and her second daughter, Miss Violet Langham, who are spending the winter in Southern Italy.

The news was a severe shock to the ambassador. Her first decision was to leave on the evening train for the Pacific coast, but she has been ill for several days and at the urgent wish of her family probably will not attempt the trip. Miss Ivy Langham, whose engagement to Lieut. Commander De Faramond, naval attaché of the French embassy, has just been announced, is spending the winter here with her sister. The ambassador is unable to leave his post here and has asked Arthur Langham to come to Washington to consult about the funeral arrangements. In the event that the body is brought to Louisville, some of the family here will go there. The announcement is made that the ambassador and her sister have cancelled all their social engagements. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt and the Japanese minister were the first to offer their condolences.

WYOMING VALLEY FLOOD.

Over $1,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed and Thousands Homeless.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 10.—The city of Wilkesbarre and the Wyoming valley was in a turmoil Wednesday. The north branch of the Susquehanna river is a vast sea of water, sweeping in its path whatever there is to invade.

Industries are closed down on account of the water invading many places, and in many places water is flowing into the mines. In the central portion of Wilkesbarre Wednesday business was crippled on account of basements being filled with water.

At Plymouth the entire business section of the town is under water. Only a few business houses escaped the flood.

Summing up the situation in brief, over a million dollars worth of property has been destroyed in the Wyoming valley and over 2,000 families rendered homeless.

PLURAL MARRIAGES.

Effort Being Made to Have Polygamy Placed on the List of Crimes.

Chicago, March 10.—The investigation in Washington of the case of United States Senator Smoot, of Utah, has stirred the Women's Christian Temperance Union to action and the organization will make an united effort to have polygamy placed on the list of crimes against the constitution of the United States. To bring about the desired result Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, national president of the W. C. T. U., has prepared a circular letter which is being sent out broadcast from the national headquarters at Evanston, urging the submission of an amendment to the constitution of the United States prohibiting plural marriages.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Bill Appropriating $50,000 to Be Divided Among Four of Them.

Washington, March 10.—Senator Quay introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 to be divided between Franklin institute, of Philadelphia, and Purdue university, of Lafayette, Ind.; Philadelphia commercial museums and the engineering department of the University of Pennsylvania, for the proper determining of the quantity of the hammer blow, centrifugal lift and tangential throw of the counterbalance in locomotive driving wheels.

Electric Company Incorporated.

Trenton, N. J., March 10.—The Indiana & Michigan Electric Co., capital $2,000,000, was incorporated here Wednesday to manufacture and furnish electric lights and power and to operate trolley lines.

Murderer Dunn Captured.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 10.—Mark Dunn, the murderer who was sentenced to be hanged here Friday and who escaped Monday, was captured at Guilford Wednesday night. He will be hanged Friday morning.

Suddenly Recovered His Voice.

St. Louis, March 10.—After being speechless for five months as the result of a fall from a street car, Rev. D. E. Standard, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church, suddenly recovered his voice Wednesday.

After American Teachers.

Washington, March 10.—The desire of the Philippines for an American education is strikingly set out by the appeal Wednesday from Manila to the insular bureau for an additional 160 school teachers from the United States.

THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky,
Where the "Old Home" got its name,
Where the fields are overflowing
With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn,
Tobacco plants—big as cactus—
Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus,
Larger in our home-like view,
But it's of a fine grade as
Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest,
Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers,
Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways,
Built high and dry from rains and flood.
Here the "good roads delegation,"
Swear the roads are suit'nly good.

But of pikes and highways finest,
There's a "road" that suits my taste;
Tis the line of Solid Comfort,
And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis,
Operates this road of class,
Across the famous old "Green R'iver"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—
Hurry! beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"—
Tis a good one to acquire.

—[Jack "Henderson" Gallagher.]

Big Force of Men At Work.

Fifty men and two construction cars are busy on the Paris and Lexington line, rock-blasting the road bed. On account of the wet weather the track has not been receiving the attention that would otherwise have been bestowed upon it, and the temporary ballasting of cinders has proved inadequate.

On account of the desire to open the road as soon as the ties and rails were laid, the traffic over the line was begun before the road could be rock-blasted all the way. The rails were laid as soon as the grading was finished and were filled with ordinary dirt, and to prevent this from washing a temporary ballast of cinders was used. The ballasting with rock will continue now until the entire road bed is completed.

FRESH ROASTED.—I always keep on hand a fresh lot of fresh roasted peanuts. 2t J. E. CRANEN.

Stolen Horse Recovered.

About two weeks ago a man giving his name as Clyde Tweedle, hired a saddle horse from Bruce & Carter, liverymen of Stanford, Ky. He arrived in Paris a few days ago and put up with Hinton & Morris, and tried to sell the horse. Chief of Police Hill, having a description of the animal, identified it as the stolen horse from Stanford. The Stanford firm sent for their animal yesterday.

A Quiet Wedding.

The Lexington Herald says: "The marriage of Miss Chornie Kern and Dr. Bruce Anderson, both of Paris, Ky., was quietly celebrated Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bayless on High street. Mrs. Bayless was an intimate friend of the bride while they were at college. Miss Kern has often visited her here and it was the desire of the bride couple to marry in this quiet way. Rev. Preston Blake, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Mrs. Bayless and family were present. The bride is a lovely young woman. bright and attractive and is the daughter of Mr. C. L. Kern, of Paris. A NEW GAME.—The new game of finch swept over the country like wildfire, but it is thought it will give way to one of later date. The game is called "Christianity." ## World's Fair March, 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati, known as the "Prize Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March 1904, and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S-W. R. R., World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with high illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is his latest success, and will add further to his fame. Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in national contests at Elks' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July, when, in a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America, won the first prize of $1,000. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music.

Send 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

A CONFESSION.

I've been down to the city, and I've seen the electric lights. The twenty-story buildings and the other stunnin' sights; I've seen the trolley cars a-rushin' madly down the street, and all the place a-lookin' like a fairy land complete.

But I'd rather see the big trees that's a-growin' up to home. An' watch the stars a-twinklin' in the blue an' 'lofty dome. An' I'd rather hear the wind that goes a-singin' past the door. Than the traffic of the city, with its bustle an' its roar.

I reckon I'm peculiar an' my tastes is kind o' low; But what's the use denyin' things that certainly is so? I went up to a concert, an' I heard the music there; It sounded like angelic harps a-floatin' through the air.

Yet spite of all its glory an' the gladness an' acclaim, I stopped to think a minute, I was home-sick jes' the same.

An' I couldn't help confessin', though it seems a curious thing, That I'd rather hear a robin sweetly pipin' in the spring.

A Quiet Summer

By

JULIA TRUITT BISHOP

(Copyright, 1903, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

WE ARE fairly settled now, and I will send you a few lines, tired as I am. Mamma is delighted with the little old sleepy town, and I am delighted that we are out in the country, and don't live in the town, and that we have a pony and buggy and can drive to town when we like, and that we don't have to go there unless we really wish to go. Personally, I would be willing not to see a town again in a hundred years. I want to sit under the pine trees over on that hill, or lie in the hammock and read, and let the June sunshine soak in, all summer long.

I have just read that last line over. It sounds poetical, but it won't be June sunshine after to-day. However, you know what I mean.

In other words, I am going to take the rest cure, Nell, and when you see your little sister again you won't know her. Think of it—not a glimpse of pen and ink or of that blessed typewriter, except the few lines I am going to write you. No more of the coldness and indifference of the city—not even a thought of the faithlessness of those in whom I trusted. I am going to live with nature, and try to grow strong and well, and forget that I ever had a sorrow.

Oh, by the way, I received a letter from Mr. Grosvenor this morning. He tries to explain that affair about the "errand girl at the Willowby reception last week. I wonder if he thinks I care? Really, the letter made me laugh. It certainly is absurd for him to think that it matters in the least to me what he does.

This place is too delicious for letter writing. The hammock calls me.

CATHIE.

June 30.

Mr. John Grosvenor, Dear Sir:—Your explanation was quite unnecessary, as the incident you mention had entirely escaped my memory until you recalled it. I am sorry I cannot enter upon the correspondence for which you ask, as I have come out here for a complete rest, and cannot burden myself with writing to any but intimate friends.

Sincerely yours, CATHERINE TRAYNOR.

Dear Nellie: July 5. One of our neighbors came to see us yesterday. She is a Mrs. Ford, and she told us that Mrs. Jennings who lives on the other side of our place, is a well-meaning woman, but very imprudent in her goings-on with her husband's nephew, and there isn't anything in the world wrong about her, but she ought to be more careful, because people will talk—indeed, Mrs. Ford herself had heard them talking.

As Mrs. Ford was going away Mrs. Jennings "dropped by" on her way from town and they met in the gate and greeted one another as sisters should. Mrs. Jennings told us afterwards that Mrs. Ford was one of the best-hearted women she had ever known, but of all the housekeepers!—and that the whole family were shiftless, and if it hadn't been for the vegetables she sent them the year round she believed in her soul they'd starve.

You know I like this kind of life. It does seem so soothing and restful, just to lie up here and have nothing to do but to hear these people talk in this airy manner about one another.

I have had another letter from Mr. Grosvenor. Did you ever hear of anyone being so persistent? It seems difficult to convince him that I don't care to know him any longer. If he could only understand my complete indifference I am sure he would not write again.

CATHIE.

Mr. John Grosvenor, July 5. Dear Mr. Grosvenor:—I don't know why you should dwell upon the little accident at the reception, when I have told you that I had entirely forgotten it. Surely, you had a perfect right to tell Miss Ferrand not to supper, even if her escort had not been called away and left her in your care, as you continue to assert. She is a very beautiful girl, as every one knows. Please accept my compliments on your evident good taste. There will be no need for me to write again, so I will say goodbye. With best wishes,

C. L. TRAYNOR.

Dear Nellie: July 11. At least 15 women from town have driven out here to see us, and things I have learned! I can't tell you all of them; but every woman has assured us that this is the greatest town for gossip that she ever saw, and from all of them, collectively, I have gleaned the following facts: Mrs. Harrison considers herself the leader of society—fancy a leader of Pineville society!—but one who has been there and knows brought back the report that she "wasn't much thought of" back "where she came from." Miss Lawson is always making herself officious about church work, but every one knows she is trying to catch the young minister; Mrs. May gave ten progressive eucharist last season, and always got the consolation prize herself, and everybody said how funny it was that the consolation prize was invariably the handsomest of the lot; the whole town knew where Mrs. Stuart's new diamonds came from, for her husband was gambling every night in one of the rooms over his store, up to all kinds of unearthly hours.

There—I am out of breath with merely thinking of them. Try to imagine the rest. J. G. has written another letter. How I detest that man, since I have learned to know him as he is!

July 12.

Dear Mr. Grosvenor:—I thought when I wrote you last that I had finished the correspondence, but it seems I must write again. I find it very irritating to have to assure you over and over that the incident you mention has made no impression on me—none whatever. Since you insist, however, I will say again that I am not angry—that I have nothing to be angry about—that you were perfectly at liberty to give your attention to Miss Ferrand or any other young lady. Is that satisfactory? You have given the matter far more attention than it deserved.

By the way, they talk, out in this country. I heard yesterday that I was writing three letters a week to a gentleman in the city whose name was Governor, which is really a close guess, for these people. Please don't write any more.

CATHERINE TRAYNOR.

August 9.

Dear Nellie: No news of any kind to write. We are both well. Have you seen John lately? I am having a delightful time. Isn't it strange what a long summer this has been? When I looked at the calendar just now to see what the date was I was astonished. It seems to me that we have been in this lovely place three years.

CATHIE.

August 10.

Mr. John Grosvenor, Dear Friend:—I have had no letter from you in days and days, and even if I did ask you not to write, it shows that you were very willing to drop the correspondence. You are developing your acquaintance with the pretty Ferrand girl, I suppose. That is the way with men—they are all alike. I wouldn't have dreamed a few months ago that you would leave me agonizing out here in this wretched place, and not even take time to write an occasional letter. When I see people I hear gossip and scandal, and when I don't see people I sit in the hammock and pity myself for hours at a time.

The latest scandal is about me. One of those good-natured friends Byron talks about came and told me. It seems that I was engaged to a really lovely man in the city, but I was so haughty and indolent and so set up—though goodness knows what I had to be set up about—that he broke the engagement and won't make friends, though I have written him letter after letter begging and imploring him to be reconciled.

How can you be so hard-hearted, lovely man?

KATIE.

Dear Old Jack:—Just after I had sent my letter off yesterday yours came, asking me to make up. Oh, Jack, if you only knew what an awful summer this has been—how I have suffered from this estrangement! It was all my fault, Jack, dear. You needn't blame yourself.

August 11.

Dear Nell:—We are coming home next week. 'Jack came up yesterday and took me by surprise while I was writing a letter to him. He certainly is the dearest old fellow! We are to be married this time next month—he wouldn't wait any longer, and I'm very glad he wouldn't. There never was such a dear, old faithful fellow as he has been. We are going driving this evening—all about town. He says we'll set these people up in talk for the rest of their natural lives. But this is a beautiful little old town—you would be so fond of it.

Isn't it strange—I do think it is the strangest thing—that I could have been so unreasonable as to quarrel with Jack!

CATHIE.

August 12.

Mother and Child. Mother and Child! There is no holier sight in all the realms of morning and of night; And all the meaning of that word, Divine, Shines in the tender glory of this sign. The world learns Worship here; it kneels in awe, Seeing a mystery, knowing a mighty law. Sin cannot live in presence of this grace. No least unworthiness perplex the place. Here Good doth dwell, but never baneful Doubt. For Love and Loveliness would cast it out. Were prophet voices still, the heavens brass. Here would a new Evangel come to pass: Out from the dark a rose-leaf band would leap. Close to the Eternal Throne the ancient world to keep. —Century.

PRODUCTION OF GALALITH.

Material from Which Many Useful Articles Are Manufactured in Germany.

Galalith, or "milk stone," is of about the same hardness as horn, but it is a little more brittle. In order to bend it is necessary to place the material for about ten minutes in cold water; then it is put for five, ten, or even 15 minutes—depending upon its thickness—into boiling water, or, better still, into mineral oil at a temperature of from 80 to 100 degrees Centigrade. After that the galalith can be bent easily, but this must be done gently and not by jerks. When heated, the finest impressions can be made on it. It is polished in the same way as horn—i. e., after having carefully smoothed its surface with the help of sandpaper, it is polished by the application of plenty of water, some oil, fine pumice stone and gray tripoli. After this it is dried by rubbing with a coarse cloth, and then with the help of a pad a little green soap and Vienna chalk is rubbed on. The brilliant polish thus obtained is glassy and nicer and more durable than that of horn. Galalith is of about the same weight as celluloid; it is lighter than hard rubber of a poor quality, but slightly heavier than articles made of hard rubber. Unlike celluloid, it cannot be chipped with a knife; but, the same as horn, it must be cut by means of a fine saw.

Like tortoise shell it can be soldered, and by means of a specially prepared glue it can be fastened on celluloid, wood, tiles and metal. A great variety of articles are manufactured out of this new material by the Vereinigte Gummiwarenfabrik at Harburg and Vienna. As, for instance, handles for canes and umbrellas, combs, cigar holders, various ornaments for ladies and gentlemen, etc. Quite recently galalith has also been employed in the manufacture of furniture; on account of its beautiful shades, particularly marble colors, galalith is used for framing the valuable and very delicate iridescent glass; it being also furnished in tubes, it can be used in the manufacture of parlor or onyx lamps.

The manufacture of galalith takes from two weeks to three months, depending on the required thickness; at present it is rolled in plates of a thickness of 2 millimeters (0.078 inch), and 50 centimeters (19.68 inches) by 80 centimeters (31.2 inches) in size; slabs of a thickness of 3 millimeters (0.12 inch) and more, and tubes are not rolled, but drawn. This is done in the works at Wimpfossing and Harburg, on the Elbe. In the latter place a large factory for the production of galalith is in course of construction. I am informed by the manufacturers that on account of their United States patents not being fully granted, etc., for some time to come they will be unable to export their products for use on the American market.

HARD-WOOD IN MADAGASCAR

There is an Opening for Americans to Organize a Direct Trade with the Island.

In compliance with a request from a well-known colonist here, desirous of opening relations with the United States for the exploitation of timber, particularly ebony and other hard woods, I submit the subjoined notes concerning the woods of Madagascar:

After a very careful examination of the various timbers peculiar to Madagascar, particularly ebony, palisander, rose, and many other woods which with the development of this colony will prove of high value, I am able to state that there is an opening here for Americans to organize a direct trade with this island for regular cargoes of some of the very choicest woods sought after by both shipbuilders and cabinetmakers.

The ebony of Madagascar is already very much in vogue on the Hamburg market. There is also an ample supply of a very heavy wood called "lalaona," which is impregnable, even after 30 years' immersion in salt water. I might mention also the "vintanana," a light wood for marine construction, called in the French market "acajou a gros grain" (coarse-grained mahogany), very pliant and without knots, its specific gravity being lighter than water. I could mention many other woods, the technical description of which would only be understood by specialists, so would refer all merchants interested in the outlook to apply in the first place to Mr. Louis Marquet, Sainte Marie, Madagascar (letters preferably to be written in French), when all particulars will be furnished.

The timber export trade from Madagascar is one that is arousing some interest just now, in view of the results of the scientific explorations of the forests so admirably conducted by the French. South African dealers have their eyes on the timber resources here, and an American firm has recently sent out from there an expert representative.

Disastrous Year for Ships.

College Professor's Sword Was Drawn Without Danger to Anyone's Cuticle.

Prof. E. G. Dexter, of the University of Illinois, whose interesting investigations have proved football to be a harmless game, is popular on account of his geniality, says the New York Tribune.

After a certain football victory Prof. Dexter entertained one night a group of students at his residence.

A magnificent sword hung over the fireplace of the library, and during a space of silence Prof. Dexter took down this sword and brandished it impressively.

"Never will I forget," he exclaimed, "the day I drew this blade for the first time."

"Where did you draw it, sir?" a freshman asked, respectfully.

"At a raffle," said Prof. Dexter.

A Physician's Advice.

Yorktown, Ark., March 7.—Dodd's Kidney Pills must not be confounded with the ordinary patent medicine. They are a new discovery, a specific for all diseases of the kidneys and have been accepted by physicians only after careful tests in extreme cases. Dr. Leland Williamson, of this place, heartily endorses Dodd's Kidney Pills "as a remedy for the various forms of the diseases of the kidneys, pains in the back, soreness in the region of the kidneys, foul-smelling urine and cloudy or thickened condition of the urine, discharges of pus or corruption, Gout, Rheumatism, Inflammation and Congestion of the kidneys and all kindred complaints."

"I could mention many cases in which I have prescribed Dodd's Kidney Pills with success. For instance, Mr. Robert Weeks, farmer, malacia haematuria or swamp fever three times, kidneys weakened, continual pain and soreness in back, which made him very nervous, had a little fever and sometimes chills. Urine changeable, but generally very high-colored, an old chronic case who had taken much medicine with little effect. After taking Dodd's Kidney Pills about six weeks, he was entirely cured and had gained fifteen pounds in weight. The last time I saw him, he was the picture of perfect manhood."

A severe case of Ovarian

Trouble and a terrible operation avoided. Mrs. Emmons tells how she was saved by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am so pleased with the results obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it a duty and a privilege to write you about it.

I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. ## LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Fletcher Mann sold to Wm. Isgrig, a pair of work mules for $350.

—D. F. Caswell, of Millersburg, has moved to the 80-acre farm of Jas. Hinton, near town.

—In Boyle, I. M. Quisenberry sold a lot of corn from his farm at $3.10 per bushel in the crib. This was extra good corn.

—John E. Madden, of Lexington, has added 16 more acres to Hamburg Place, in Fayette, paying Earl Sellers $1,760 for them.

—Mr. E. P. Woods, of Lincoln county, sold his 1902, 1903 and 1904 crop of hemp to Mr. W. J. Loughbridge, of Lexington, at $5 per 112 pounds.

—For the first time in a decade a Lancaster, Ky., farm is paying $1.20 per bushel for wheat. The market has little to offer at this liberal price.

—At the Carrick sale, yesterday, in Scott, there was a large crowd in attendance and everything brought good prices. A good Bourbon delegation was on hand.

—Harrison county comes to the front with the largest yield of tobacco on one acre of land so far recorded. W. J. Courtney, of Connersville, raised 3,385 pounds on an acre and sold it at 10½ cents. As Col. Craddock would say, "A joke, perhaps."

—Mr. M. B. Nutter, of Fayette, has sold to the Continental Company 10,835 pounds of tobacco at 10 cents a pound. The entire crop was raised on five acres and is an unusual yield, 1,600 pounds to the acre being a fair average crop and 8 cents a pound the usual price obtained for such tobacco.

—Reports in exchanges from all over the tobacco growing section of Kentucky show that growers are preparing to plant an enormous crop of tobacco this year. If it is a favorable season that will certainly mean lower prices on the crop next year. It will not be good policy to depend upon the tobacco crop alone.

—Warren A. Bacon, Jr., of Maplehurst stud, this city, has bought of Wm. H. Whaley, the fast five-year-old bay mare by Wiggins, sire of the sensational Katherine A, dam of Alcantra 2:33. This mare is a very speedy green performer, but Bacon purchased her to be mated with his noted stallion, Jay Bird. Bacon's celebrated mare, Celerima 2:14, by Happy Medium, dam Esquimaux, dam of O. M. C. 2:10 by Aberdeen, has just foaled a roan filly by Jay Bird. This is the first trotting foal so far reported in Bourbon county this year. Celerima will be bred back to Jay Bird this season.

—Kentucky breeders and breeders of other sections whose studs are located in Kentucky are losing, at the least calculation, the sum of $40,000 per annum by sending their yearling products to foreign markets to besold. This estimate is obtained by taking the yearling sale of 1903 made at New York. The 712 yearlings sent there from Kentucky last year, sold for $591,450. And by the table and expenses given by the Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, the conclusion is clear that if Kentucky's yearlings were sold in Kentucky, not only would the breeders save their annual expenses of some $40,000, but buyers would seek Kentucky soil for their youngsters.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine. I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.
Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.
